

The Navy League of the United States
FLEET ADMIRAL CHESTER W. NIMITZ AWARD

Background

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Award honors a leader of industry who has made a major contribution to our nation's maritime strength and/or enhanced our national security. In selecting the Nimitz Award recipient, the committee will select the person that best exemplifies the leadership, statesmanship and dedication to our country that was exhibited by the award's namesake, Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz.

Selection Process and Award Presentation

Nomination packages will be reviewed and evaluated by a distinguished committee appointed by the National President of the Navy League. The committee will have the challenge of selecting the "best of the best" from among the field of nominated civilian leaders. The winner will be honored in front of an audience of senior military leaders and their industry peers at Sea-Air-Space 2020 at the Gaylord Resort and Convention Center in National Harbor, MD. The winner is expected to accept the award in person.
